President's 'Lend-Lease' Proposal to Supply Britain's Opposed by Wheeler

Senator Also Expected to Comment on Radio Address of President on Sunday
Out of Cash
Britain To Run Out of Cash For Arms In Early Autumn

Washington, Dec. 28 (AP)—Further opposition to President Roosevelt's "lend-lease" plan of furnishing war supplies to Great Britain, developing today, with Senator Wheeler (D., Mont.) announcing that he would broadcast objections to the proposals tomorrow night.
The speech, to be carried at 10:30 p. m. (E.S.T.) over a national hookup (NBC) will be re-broadcast to foreign countries by short wave.
Wheeler, who this week urged the administration to "force peace on Europe," said he would discuss foreign affairs generally and the "lend-lease" proposal specifically. He also was expected to comment on the President's national radio address to be delivered tomorrow night.
Mr. Roosevelt suggested recently that the United States might lease or lend Britain necessary future war supplies, with satisfactory settlement to be arranged after the European conflict ended.
Wheeler said he was confident that the administration would not attempt to put into effect any plan to circumvent the "cash and carry" provisions of the neutrality act, but would ask congressional approval of any additional aid to Britain.
"If the President has the right to lease battleships, airplanes and munitions," Wheeler said, "he can lend the boys who are in the army or who are being drafted now. One is just as legal as the other and one will lead to the other."
Rep. Fish (R., N. Y.) declared in a statement that congress would support the President "regardless of partisanship, on all feasible measures short of war, but will not follow him in any short cut to war." He said the United States could supply Britain with the airplanes and ships she needs, without going to war.
A preliminary audit of British resources in the United States has revealed, authoritative sources disclosed today, that Great Britain will run out of cash to pay for purchases of arms and munitions here "in the early autumn" of next year.
The preliminary examination of Britain's financial condition, made by U. S. Treasury experts, established that the end of cash payments was approaching, it was stated. A more detailed study of the British treasury's "balance sheet" now is under way.
That detailed analysis, informed sources said, was being made to determine as precisely as possible British capacity to pay for purchases here, and the probable calendar date on which British cash would be exhausted.
The treasury's study also will provide answers to the questions President Roosevelt and Secretary Morgenthau expect to be asked when Congress considers the problem of aid to Britain.
The British government now is paying for war supplies with gold shipped from London, payments for British goods, and receipts from the sale here of British-owned dollar securities.
Well informed sources said that the British treasury's balance sheet, made available to the U. S. Treasury experts, showed that Britain would be able to pay cash for all ships, planes and other war implements and supplies now on order, but could not pay cash for the tremendous future orders which Britain wants to place immediately.
The treasury's analysis of British resources, it was believed, prompted President Roosevelt's recent proposal that the United States take measures necessary to insure a continuous flow of vital war materials to the British empire when Britain no longer was able to pay cash.
The President suggested that the United States government might take over all future orders for war supplies and lease or lend the planes, guns and other materiel required to the British government.
He declared the dollar sign should be eliminated from the question of American aid to Britain, and a mutually satisfactory settlement negotiated after the war.

It Doesn't Smell Right to Him

Consider Rationing Aluminum Products

Washington, Dec. 28 (AP)—Rationing of aluminum products was under consideration in government circles today as a means of avoiding possible delays in warplane production schedules.
Authoritative sources reported that this device was being studied as well as the more frequently mentioned one of production priorities.
Under a rationing system, defense officials would determine what amounts of completed aluminum products should be delivered to various plane manufacturers.
Theoretically, officials said, products ordered by a manufacturer who already had a surplus on hand might be diverted to another who had no such accumulation. This practice would be limited, however, to products that could be used by either—aluminum sheets, for example. Forgings made to special measurements probably would not be interchanged.

Secret Is Out

Philadelphia, Dec. 28 (AP)—The secret is out of why it is hard to poison a cockroach. He carries in his stomach some parasites which kill poison and eat it to his great relief. This trick was described to the American Association for the Advancement of Science today by four U. S. Bureau of Entomology men from Beltsville, Md., Dr. J. F. Yeager, Dr. E. R. McGorran, Sam C. Munson and E. L. Mayer. By dyeing the parasites they found that there may be more than one kind, each a "specialist" in one sort of poison.

Local Hospitals Named for $20,000 In Will of Late William E. Bruyn

Both the Benedictine and Kingston Hospitals are named for $10,000 each in the will of the late William E. Bruyn, former resident of Bruynswick, town of Wallkill, it was learned yesterday afternoon at the office of Surrogate Harry H. Flemming, where the will has been admitted to probate.
St. Luke's Hospital of Newburgh and the Shawangunk Reformed Church were named for similar amounts and the widow, Beatrice V. Bruyn, receives a legacy of $250,000, a bequest of personal effects and the income from a trust fund of $250,000.
Other bequests as listed in the petition for probate include: William Bruyn Sipp, S. L., $1,000; Francis S. Bruyn, Wyckoff, N. J., $18,000; Anthony Iannuzzi, Richmond Hill, N. Y., $1,000.
The original will consisting of 20 pages was executed April 29, 1932, but was greatly changed by subsequent action, the last instrument, probated with the will, being dated August 23, 1940. Proceedings before Surrogate Flemming were

Wright Has Now Quit Dairy Union

Resignation Comes After Delegates Had Defeated His Proposal to Oust 51 Members.

Bitter Debate

Members Had Accused Him of "Communist Sympathies"

Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 28 (AP)—Archie Wright, slight, bespectacled founder of the Dairy Farmers Union, and its leader through four stormy years, has resigned as its general chairman.
Repudiated by delegates whom he asked to expel 51 signers of a union election broadside accusing him of "Communist sympathies," he stepped down suddenly and dramatically last night with the admonition:
"This is a firm resignation and not subject to change. You cannot call for Archie any more."
Other members of the union's general organization committee planned a session today to map the organization's future course.
Wright's resignation came immediately after delegates, after eight hours of debates, had defeated his expulsion proposal, 118 to 52.
Then he walked quickly out of the crowded, smoky hall, as sympathetic handclaps mingled with opposition cheers.
Wright charged a conspiracy existed to "split the union apart," and that "deceit and fraud had been used to this purpose in the election campaign, in which he was re-elected to the organization committee while his four running mates were defeated."
The campaign appeal for his defeat in the election, Wright said, was "a violation of union ethics." He charged certain organization committee members, whom he did not name, had carried on a "whispering campaign" against him, also charging him with being a "radical" and a man with "Communist sympathies and contacts."
Wright told the delegates these moves were "directed by an outside source," and that the "concealed purpose" of the broadside had been "in the interest of the milk dealers."
He offered two proposals, one calling for expulsion of the 51 signers of the campaign appeal, and the other dismissing union officers, setting up an "emergency board" comprising of county unit chairmen, and calling for election of a new chairman and secretary-treasurer.

Engineers Warned To Keep on Alert Against Sabotage

New York, Dec. 28 (AP)—A federal agent yesterday warned water supply engineers to be alert against possible sabotage, and a city engineer declared that 19,500 fewer permits for fishing and boating in the city's watershed area would be issued in 1941 under new strict anti-sabotage regulations.
Division Engineer Tobias Hochler of the department of water supply, gas and electricity, told the New York Section, American Water Workers Association, that only 400 to 500 permits would be released in the coming year, as compared to an average of some 20,000 in past years.
B. E. Sackett, special agent in charge of the local office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, also addressing the 200 engineers, said that saboteurs, by striking at water systems, could seriously upset the "morale of the country."
So far there have been "no concerted efforts at sabotage by foreign agents in the United States," he said, adding:
"We should not become hysterical over the existence of sabotage. But, at the same time, let us not be smug and believe that there is no danger."
Sackett declared that "it is true we have internal enemies in this country, and there is a danger from possible operations."

Mrs. Simpson Dead

Bridgeport, Conn., Dec. 28 (AP)—Mrs. Sumner Simpson, 62, wife of the president of the Raybestos-Manhattan Company, died today. She was a descendant of early New Rochelle and Greenville, N. Y., settlers.

Dairymen To Ballot Again on Amendment

Washington, Dec. 28 (AP)—Nearly 60,000 dairymen in six northeastern states supplying the rich New York city market will ballot again next month on eight defeated amendments to the federal-state order governing the metropolitan market.
Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard, announcing plans yesterday for the second referendum, said that should the proposed changes again be defeated the New York order would be suspended February 1.
Earlier, agriculture department officials had indicated suspension would follow a defeat of the amendments in the referendum ending last Saturday, but Governor Herbert H. Lehman and New York city's Mayor Fiorella LaGuardia yesterday intervened for maintenance of the status quo.
Lehman, in a personal plea, urged Wickard to continue federal regulation in order to avoid "chaos." LaGuardia, by telegram, asked dairy farmers be given "another opportunity to express their opinion."
Balloting will be at designated polling places on a date to be announced later. Aides of Senator Meade (D.-N. Y.) said they understood January 21 had been selected.

Pittsburgh Judge Will 'Keep Watch' For Topsy Drivers

Revives the Crusade on New Year's Eve and Will Sit to Deal With Violators

Pittsburgh, Dec. 28 (AP)—Judge Michael Angelo Musmanno is on the warpath again, and that is bad news for tipsy drivers.
Four years ago the scholarly little author of "Black Fury" attracted nationwide attention through a spectacular campaign against drunken driving.
He is reviving that crusade on New Year's Eve and will sit all night as a committing magistrate in criminal court to deal summarily with intoxicated motorists.
City, county and state police will patrol the night spots. Offenders first will be warned, then hailed into court if they insist on taking the wheel.
The 42-year-old judge once again became presiding judge of Allegheny county (Pittsburgh) criminal courts on New Year's, a post from which 12 fellow jurists "fired" him in 1937 on the grounds his conduct in forcing drunken drivers to drive against night was "undignified."
That indictment halted the loquacious jurist's five-months' campaign in which he estimated drunk driving on Pittsburgh streets was reduced 80 per cent.
He made jail sentences mandatory, assessing 413 offenders from 30 days to two years each, including women, politicians, socialites and sons of millionaires.
Each person convicted had to take a pledge over maimed bodies in morgue not to drive again under the influence of liquor. Those guilty of manslaughter had to take their oath over the grave of the victim.
Hearings were held at all hours of the day and night in homes, on street corners, and in the morgue. Once he arranged a public funeral for a victim, and forced the attendance of all jail inmates accused of driving while intoxicated.
On the eve of 1937's New Year's, Judge Musmanno's tactics threw such a scare into merry makers that many parties hired chauffeurs and even chartered buses. The safety record of that celebration never has been equaled here.

ROBERT J. SERVICE

Robert J. Service of Stone Ridge, who for the past 18 years has acted as chief probation officer of the county on a part time basis, has tendered his resignation to County Judge Andrew J. Cook, the resignation to become effective January 1.
The resignation was given some time ago and accepted by Judge Cook but because of illness and the fact that Judge Cook is now confined to the hospital there was no official confirmation of the resignation being accepted.
Probation Officer Service Friday said his resignation had been handed in shortly after he had submitted his annual report to the Board of Supervisors in which he recommended that the probation officer's job be made a full-time job. His suggestion was accepted by the board and an appropriation of $1,800 was included in the budget to care for this expenditure. For the past several years the position has been operated on a part time basis with an annual appropriation of $1,200 being made by the board.
Shortly after submitting his annual report to the Board of Supervisors, Probation Officer Service submitted his resignation to Judge Cook.

Group Drafts Plea For Area Support Of Hoover's Plan

Feeding of Five European Democracies Is Urged by Religious Society at Clintondale

Former President Herbert Hoover's plan for feeding the populations of the five small European countries deprived of their normal food supplies by the war has been approved by the Religious Society of Friends meeting in Clintondale last Friday evening.
At this church meeting a committee consisting of the Rev. Kermit Schoonover, pastor; Mrs. Bertha Deyo Jacobs, Leander T. Minard and Mrs. Dorothy Weaver Thomson were named to draft the following letter for publication in the hope that other congregations will support the Hoover plan.
The statement prepared by the committee follows:
"As we in the United States happily celebrate the holiday season, our happiness is shadowed by the thought of our misery and suffering of fellow human beings abroad. We have been offered, however, a definite plan by which to aid them and should make every effort to see that it is followed."
Former President Herbert Hoover and his committee have drawn up a plan for feeding the populations of the five small European democracies that have been deprived of their normal food supplies because of the war.

Hoover Quoted

"In a recent speech at the annual dinner of the Pennsylvania Society, Mr. Hoover said: 'Governments may depreciate, some cartoonists may sneer, some columnists may argue, but the hard, inexorable, stark fact is that because of the war...'

Naval and Aerial Action Gives War News Turn Towards The Sea in Wide Area

Italy's Warning

Says American Ships Will be Subject to Warlike Action

By The Associated Press
Naval and aerial action from the Norwegian coast to the equatorial Pacific gave war news a definite turn towards the sea today.
A submarine of unidentified nationality fired a torpedo without luck at a ship of Panamanian registry just leaving the harbor of Ponta Delgada in the Portuguese Azores. DNB, official German news agency, said the German navy was using a former British submarine, the 2,500-ton Seal, captured in the North Sea May 5.
The Germans announced the sinking of five British armed merchant ships totaling 37,163 tons, including the "Walotira," by two German submarines. A Nazi scouting plane, informed Berlin sources said, also bombed and apparently sank a merchant ship of 8,000 to 10,000 tons yesterday east of the Thames mouth.
The torpedo fired at Ponta Delgada skidded up on the beach, exploded and damaged several houses, and the ship put back to port.
A dispatch from Melbourne, Australia, reported that the mystery sea raider bearing a Japanese name and flag which shelled the Pacific island of Nauru yesterday hoisted the German flag just before opening fire.
The British admiralty said some dive bombers of the fleet arm and RAF warplanes attacked German shipping in the harbor of the Haudesund, Norway, yesterday, setting afire one ship and damaging warehouses and jetties. The place is about 30 miles north of the port of Stavanger.

Furious Attack on London

German warplanes dropped "many bombs" on London in a furious four-hour attack last night, killing "a number" of persons and ending an unofficial Christmas truce which gave the British capital three days of quiet peace.
The Royal Air Force at the same time, an official British statement said, smashed at German "invasion ports" on the Nazi-occupied coast across the English channel, where unusual troop movements had been reported recently.
The total casualties in the London raid were not disclosed, but it was known that several persons were killed and injured when a shelter was hit, and others were believed trapped in smashed homes and buildings.
One bomb damaged a 700-bed hospital, but no casualties were reported.
Two American seamen aboard the Panama-registered 8,982-ton tanker, Charles Pratt, were reported lost when the ship sank December 21 off the West African coast, the Standard Oil Co., of New Jersey announced.
The ship was owned by the Panama Transport Co., a Standard Oil subsidiary, and flew the Panama flag.
Details of the sinking—whether through military action or by accident—were not immediately disclosed, but company officials said it must have gone down off Free-town, a British West African port, because it was due there on that date with a cargo of oil from Aruba, Netherlands West Indies.

Greeks Drive North

Greek troops fighting a major battle of the war with Italy in the Kilisur mountain sector about 35 miles northeast of coastal Chima were said to have taken 200 more prisoners and a quantity of Fascist equipment in the drive north toward the vital Italian seaport of Valona.
Dispatches from Italian Libya said Fascist troops were digging hasty fortifications to strengthen the defenses of Tobruk, 50 miles to the west of Bardia where 20,000 Italians were said to be under direct orders of Premier Mussolini to hold out to the last man against the British.

Warning From Italy

FASHIONS and HOUSEHOLD HINTS FOR WOMEN

These Women!

By ADELAIDE KERR
AP Feature Service Writer

These women are doing unusual things at the Christmas season: Madame Elsa Schiaparelli, who has been lecturing in the United States, plans to pass up the cheer of an American Christmas, and fly across the Atlantic to carry out the toughest assignment she ever has had.

The colorful couturiere wants to do her bit in the struggle to keep Paris couture alive, by making a fashion collection for spring.

To do it she and her seamstresses will have to work swiftly in the few mid-winter daylight hours, in a half-heated house, to concoct out of whatever materials they can find a collection of clothes which will meet practical wartime demands, provide substitutes for what is lacking, and still be chic. But Madame Schiaparelli refuses to quail.

"The next collection from Paris will be the most interesting from a fashion-setting point of view that the couture ever has produced," she told me. "We shall have to find a substitute for stockings, since silk ones are no longer available in Paris. We shall

The classic draped satin gown and sheer coat ensemble is the most popular type of lingerie gift.

By AMY PORTER
AP Fashion Editor

Lingerie is developing as many independent ideas as hats, and the woman who received an intimate apparel gift this Christmas should not be surprised if she found a pair of ruffled pantaloons dangling from the tree.

They'd be part of a skating costume, probably, intended as much for warmth as for show. Long red flannels are revivals, too, for skaters and skiers.

Even more conventional lingerie and at-home costumes show new style trends. Consider:

Military Motifs—A pale blue cotton pique housecoat has a stiff stand-up collar and self-fringe epaulettes. Two-piece pajamas in red and blue flannel are decorated with military braid. College girl cottons—pajamas and housecoats—are done in red, white and blue, with patriotic motifs used on a sleeve or the breast pocket.

Chinese influence—The kimono blouse with upstanding collar is seen in both nightgowns and pajamas, in plain silk or rayon richly banded in embroidery, or in heavy brocaded silk.

Pretty - Pretties—Elaborate handmaides are available in smaller quantity this year than last, because they are no longer imported from France. But domestic handwork, though more expensive, compares favorably in quality. This year almost every lacy nightgown has its matching robe or jacket, done in chiffon or satin.

Old-Fashioneds—Long-sleeved nightgowns of the 1900 era are extremely popular, in cotton, silk, or very fine wool, usually edged in modest lace.

New Lounging Footgear (we used to say bedroom slippers) includes white wedgies initialed in red, bead-trimmed moccasins, slippers made entirely of fur or leather, rope-soled sandals, fur-bordered boots with sheepskin lining.

Young and slightly military—these white cotton flannelette pajamas are ornamented with red military braid.

Smart Accessories Go To Smart Parties

AP Feature Service

This is the season when parties and more parties make great demands on your evening wardrobe.

Costume jewelry is an essential to a soignée look. The term usually applies to make-believe metals and fake stones, but there's no rule against genuine sparklers. Real or fake, you'll want one impressive jewelry ensemble—an elaborate necklace, with matching earrings and bracelet—a set capable of turning a dress into a costume.

Extra special shoes and bags are next in importance for holiday turnouts. They'll know your bag is shiny new if you choose one of the oversize creations in gold brocade or gold kid. They are flat and strangely shaped, as if a child had tried to make an envelope.

Small handled bags, for contrast, are daintier and more jewel-like than ever, embroidered with beads, or glittering with brilliants.

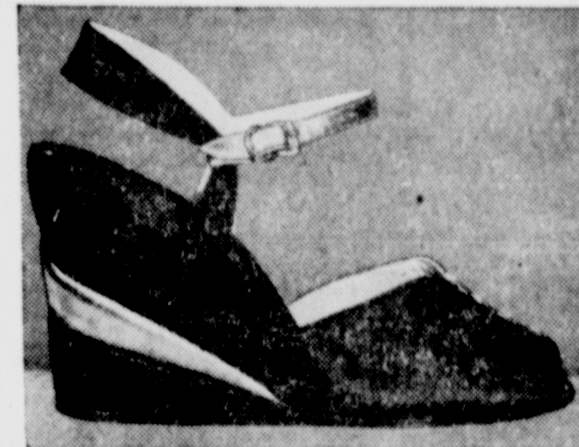

New evening shoes are more fantastic in appearance, less fantastic on the foot. Most of them dance very comfortably. Omitting spike heels and torturing in-steps, they are sandal-like, with great thick soles for added height.

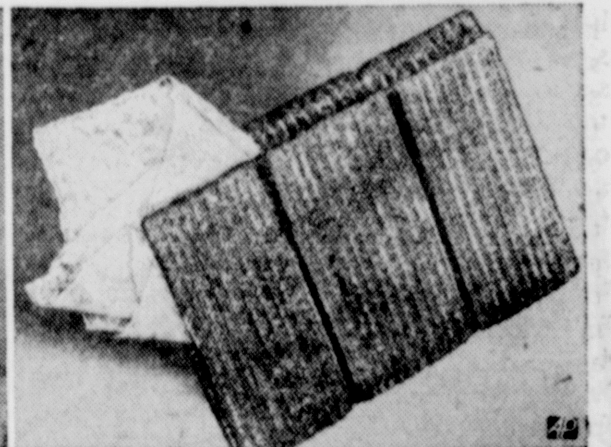

Diamond necklace fringed with seven pear-shaped solitaires, with earrings to match.

Diamond rose brooch worn bracelet—seven pear-shaped solitaires, with earrings to match.

Black suede and gold kid sandals, chosen by Brenda Marshall for dancing.

With a black dinner gown, a medium-size evening bag in gold. Lace handkerchief.

Crowning Touches for Trim Coiffures

AP Feature Service

A semi-circle of spiral brilliants brought this blonde coiffure into the spotlight. Fred Behr, the designer, planned these spirals especially to complement a coiffure with bangs. They can be used effectively across the back of a longer bob or around a bun for really long hair.

A pearl comb pins chignon curls slightly below the natural hairline in this suggestion of the Coiffure Guild of New York. The front can be pompadour or curls as you like. The important thing is that horizontal part near the center of the head. It starts the sleek effect.

A single rosette of brilliants set into the side of a pompadour is a tramp trick, especially if you are wearing other jewelry. Quaint indeed is the idea of taking several of these big brilliant swirls to make a top-knot splash as substitute for grandmother's perfect pompadour.

GOOD TASTE TODAY

by Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "The Personality of a House," "The Blue Book of Social Usage," etc.)

WORD OF WARNING TO THOSE WHO "DROP IN" AT BUSY OFFICES GIVEN BY EMILY POST

Correspondent Complains That Employer's Family Makes His Office Their Waiting Room.

I am very glad to print a letter today for the benefit of all people who stop in at the business offices of their friends to fill in idle time without seeming to have the slightest conception of what time really means to a busy person. But just to make people who do this aware of the handicap they impose is perhaps not so easy as it sounds! Unhappily it is typical of worst offenders to preface their visits by saying, "I don't want to interrupt you, or 'I'm not going to take more than a minute of your valuable time," or "I'm stopping only for a second"—whereupon they stay an hour.

However, here is the letter: "I request most earnestly that you stress in your column the etiquette required of a man's family when 'dropping in' at his office. My employer's wife, and his mother too, have made my office—which is just outside my employer's—their downtown waiting room. Inasmuch as I carry a heavy burden of work I am often obliged to stay after hours to make up for the time they have held me up while they sit here waiting for an appointment of their own."

In your own case the difficulty is that you can't possibly complain to your employer about his own family—unless he someday complains because you haven't a piece of work finished by a given time. Then, if you can say it lightly, you might perhaps explain that you are very sorry, that you had meant to finish it by noon but that Mrs. Employer had come in that morning. In fact, you might even encourage your chance to speak your piece by not staying late next time to finish the work—particularly if it were not of serious importance.

Dear Mrs. Post: I judge that "finger foods" means any foods that do not smear the fingers. That being true, then why can't crisp broiled bacon be picked up with the fingers. We always have our bacon very crisp and my young children find it impossible to eat it with a fork. And yet, I would like them to learn to eat it with the fork as long as you say that it is the proper way.

Answer: If you are not convinced, why not make your own test? That is, let the children eat the bacon in their fingers and then take a fresh sheet of paper and ask them to hold this in their fingers. If there is no greasy imprint on the paper, you win. If it is very greasy, then I do!

(Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Mrs. Post is sorry she can no longer answer personal letters. She is glad, however, to have many printed slips on a variety of subjects to offer to her readers. Today's slip is "Do You Know Your A. B. C.'s in Manners?" Be sure to send a three-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Mrs. Post, in care of Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 150, Times Square Station, New York, N. Y.

Wear the Flag, But With Care

Approved: Lapel Pin

AP Feature Service

A "Go Slow" warning has been issued by the U. S. Flag association concerning use of the colors and national emblem in clothing and miscellaneous "gadgets."

The association objects to flag designs on highball glasses and to shields on ash trays, and tells you, "Do not embroider the flag upon cushions or handkerchiefs, nor print on paper napkins or boxes."

One laundry man who sent back bundles of clothes wrapped up in a big paper flag was advised by the flag association to burn up his wrapping paper, and he did so.

Helps for Housewives

Soap should be thoroughly mixed into the water in tubs or washers before clothes are added. Soap jelly is dissolved quickly by a few beatings with a spoon or stick. If shaved soap is placed in the tub, let it stand for 3 minutes and then whip up. Two minutes of running the washing machine with the soap and water in it will thoroughly blend them.

Group Drafts Plan For Area Support Of Hoover's Plan

for the next harvest, millions of innocent children, women and men in Belgium and the other occupied democracies will be faced with the horror of starvation and disease.

"The fact cannot be dismissed. Nor can remedy be found overnight after these hideous calamities are upon us. They require months for organization—but a great body of Americans will continue to search for a means of saving these people. And there is no need to feed Germans in that saving."

"We members of the Clintondale meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, as part of the great body of Americans to whom Mr. Hoover referred, wish to publicly affirm that we hope to see the Hoover plan followed, or any modification of it that his committee may submit to the governments of the belligerents, to the end that the populations of Belgium, Finland, Norway, Holland and Central Poland may be saved for the way of democracy and peace."

General Terms

"For the benefit of those who are not familiar with the Hoover committee plan, its general terms can be briefly reviewed as follows:

"In order to supply food for these people whose domestic stores were destroyed in war, and whose normal imports were cut off through the naval blockade of Europe, it is proposed to permit supply ships to pass through the British blockade, with the knowledge and permission of the British. The ships to be used will be the property of the five nations, and the food is to be bought with their funds. The stock of supplies at any one time is not to exceed 120,000 to 140,000 tons, which is at best only three days' food supply for the German nation, so that if the supplies should be seized, the war could be but little prolonged. If any food were seized, the plan would immediately be dropped."

"Such a program we can and must support, or we shall doom the 37 million persons in these nations to death or hatred of democracy. We know that the Hoover committee's facts are true facts, not assumptions. We are asked to do nothing but subscribe our willingness to see this plan tried. Can we call ourselves a Christian nation if we do not do this simple thing?"

Service Resigns Probation Office

Cook, Mr. Service resigned when the position became a full time job because of lack of time to carry on the work as a full time occupation.

Under the state requirements every case to come before the court must be investigated and a report made not only as to the criminal record of the person before the court, but also a social report must be made to the court before sentence is pronounced. In probation cases a complete case history is made up, a work which requires a considerable amount of time and which will require full time by the probation officer.

For the past 18 years Mr. Service has served the county efficiently as chief probation officer on a part time basis with voluntary aides in various sections of the county. With increased demands upon the office and the work annually becoming heavier, Mr. Service stated that he could not carry on as a part time officer and other interests prevented his giving full time to the work.

A full time probation officer will be designated by J. Edward Conway, county judge-elect. The position is a civil service job and among the requirements are that the officer be between the ages of 21 and 55, a high school graduate and preference is given to those with social work experience or those who have had correctional work instruction. The court, however, has power to require additional qualification.

Prior to coming to Ulster county as chief probation officer Mr. Service was connected for several years with the correctional and social services of the state of New Jersey and has made an extensive study of this type of work. Mr. Service in addition to his probation work has been in charge of the Part Time School of Kingston.

Regrets Resignation
J. Edward Conway, county judge-elect, when interviewed this morning on the resignation of Probation Officer Robert J. Service said that it was with real regret that he learned of the resignation of Mr. Service as chief probation officer.

"I regret that the county is to lose the very splendid services of the Probation Officer who has given us such splendid service over a period of years. His interest in cases referred to him is such that he finds now that he had not the time which he would like to give to the county and it will be most difficult to find a substitute for him who will render the same efficient service to the county," said Mr. Conway.

Mr. Conway said he had not yet made any decision as to whom he will appoint to the position of full time probation officer after January first. Any appointment made will be temporary, pending the holding of a civil service examination and the supplying of an eligible list from which a permanent appointment must be made.

Pittsburgh, Kas., Dec. 28 (AP)—Nine-year-old Edward McFarland wants to be an army pilot when he grows up and he already has 136 hours and 10 minutes in the air to his credit. He has taken a training ship off the ground, flown to his destination and landed without help from his father who accompanied him.

Sinking of Tanker Still Unexplained In Cabled Report

New York, Dec. 28 (AP)—The unexplained sinking of the Standard Oil tanker Charles Pratt off the West African coast was reported today by its captain, who cabled that of the crew of 42 American seamen only two were lost.

First word of the sinking last Saturday was received here yesterday by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey from its London offices and placed the number of known survivors at 20.

Early today, however, Capt. Eric R. Blomquist, of the 8,982-ton Panamanian-registered tanker said in a cable transmitted through London:

"Ship lost 21st. All crew rescued except Arthur Duffy, wiper, and Patrick Dougherty, ordinary seaman. Please notify relatives."

Duffy lived in Bayonne, N. J., and Dougherty in Philadelphia.

Whether the ship was sunk by a war weapon or by accident was still a mystery, as Standard Oil officials received no further information other than the two terse messages.

The first of these termed the tanker a "casualty," which led one company spokesman to assume it had been torpedoed or shelled.

"She would have made a nice target," he said.

The captain's message, as received through London, did not give the point of origin, but Standard officials placed the scene of the sinking as near Freetown, a British West African port, where the vessel was due the day it sank.

The Charles Pratt was owned by the Panama Transport Company, a Standard Oil subsidiary, and was one of 17 New Jersey Standard Oil vessels transferred to Panamanian registry before President Roosevelt proclaimed combat zones in the war.

The vessel left Aruba, Netherlands Island near Venezuela, December 5 with 5,000,000 gallons of oil consigned to the British-Mexican Petroleum Company at Freetown.

It was the eighth sinking of a vessel flying the flag of Panama since the war began.

Edwards Charged With Disorderly Conduct

Embracing a man on the street without his consent constitutes disorderly conduct according to the police who arrested Milton Edwards, 27, of 200 Main street, on Friday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock.

Edwards, according to the information made out by Officer Lenville Relyea, was embracing a man named Jim—last name not known—and refusing to let him proceed on his way.

Edwards spent the night in the county jail and was held for a hearing in police court later today.

Budget Hearing

Monday evening a public hearing on the tentative city budget will be held by Mayor C. J. Heiselman in the council chambers in the city hall. The budget will later be filed with the aldermen and action on it will be taken at the first regular meeting in January.

Europe and the North Atlantic to the western hemisphere, the southern Atlantic and the Pacific."

In his 11 Giornale D'Italia, Gayda wrote that Japan, under her three-power pact with Italy and Germany, "is watchful and would not allow, without immediate reaction, extension of the European and Asiatic conflict."

(Japan, Italy and Germany are pledged to come to each other's aid if any one of them is "attacked" by a power not now party to the wars in the western or eastern worlds. This pact is considered generally to be directed against the United States.)

For this reason, Gayda went on, he did not see "exactly what interest American interventionists have in creating an open conflict between continents."

Sending of ships to Ireland with supplies for Britain, he said, would be "an open violation of neutrality and therefore signify initiative of the United States in intervention in the war."

The "direct responsibility" for Axis "reaction" would fall on the Washington government, Gayda wrote editorially in his 11 Giornale D'Italia.

Night Raid on London

London, Dec. 28—One of the heaviest night bombing attacks of the war on London left no doubt today that the battle of Britain, interrupted by an unofficial Christmas truce, was on again in earnest.

Wave after wave of German bombers attacked the capital last night in a raid which, while it lasted, equalled in intensity any in the past. For four hours the raiders flew over, dropping incendiaries and then heavy explosives in district after district. It was the first raid on London in three nights.

A terse government statement acknowledged that "a number" of people were killed and that "many dwellings were destroyed or damaged. Numerous fires were started, but they were dealt with 'quickly and efficiently,' the communique said.

The royal air force, too, was active, subjecting the "invasion"

Third North-South Football Classic in Montgomery Today

Southern Eleven Has Slight Edge Over Northerners

Four Cornell Athletes Will Be in Starting Lineup; Jim LaLanne Heads the Southern Squad

By ROMNEY WHEELER
Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 28 (AP)—Two star-studded squads, the pick of the nation's non-bowl contending collegians, squared away today in the third annual game of Montgomery's North-South football series.

A little hocus-pocus from North Carolina, some drive from Tulane and Duke, and dynamite from Auburn were Coach Ray Wolf's prescription for the South in a bid for a second successive victory over the Yankees.

For his backfield the North Carolina coach called up his own triple-threat ace, Jim LaLanne, halfbacks Harry Hays of Tulane and Dynamite Dick McGowen of Auburn, and Duke's plunging fullback, Jap Davis. Teaming with this scoring crew, he designated All-America Paul Severin of North Carolina and Jim Darnell of Duke as ends.

Coaches Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern and Carl Snavely of Cornell, co-coaches of the Yankee contingent, matched LaLanne with fleet Nick Basca of Villanova; evened the line-plunging power with Joe Hoague of Colgate and Bill Murphy of Cornell, and rounded out the north's backfield with Cornell's blocking back, Walt Matusczak, Al Kelley of Cornell and Ed Rucinski of Indiana were selected as starting ends.

Today's game is the rubber match in the series. The North won the inaugural, 7-0, in 1938, while the southerners leveled their foes, 32-20, a year ago.

Field trials attracting some of the best blooded dogs of the country will be held at nearby Union Springs Monday and Tuesday as a closing event of the all-sports week program sponsored by the Blue and Gray Association.

About 17,000 customers were expected for today's football classic. The kickoff was timed for 1:30 p. m. (CST).

Probable lineups:
North—LE, Kelley, Cornell; LT, Riggs, Illinois; LG, Fritz, Michigan; C, Finerman, Cornell; RG, Bucchianeri, Indiana; RT, Aarts, Northwestern; RE, Rucinski, Indiana; QB, Matusczak, Cornell; LH, Murphy, Cornell; RH, Basca, Villanova; FB, Hoague, Colgate.

South—LE, Severin, North Carolina; LT, Holdgraf, Vanderbilt; LG, Sherrod, Texas Christian; C, Whitlow, Rice; RG, Gore, Louisiana State; RT, Kimball, North Carolina; RE, Darnell, Duke; QB, LaLanne, North Carolina; LH, Hays, Tulane; RH, McGowen, Auburn; FB, Davis, Duke.

Referee, Thomas, Georgia; umpire, Pitts, Auburn; field judge, Patterson, Auburn; head linesman, Severence, Oberlin.

Ace Players Show Form in Indoor Tennis Tourney

Four High Ranked Foes Are Ready to Meet in Semi-Finals Tonight in New Jersey

Camden, N. J., Dec. 28 (AP)—The tournament committee found itself redeemed today as the four players it ranked at the top of the draw, prepared to play in the semi-finals of the national indoor tennis championships.

Philadelphia's Victor Seixas, seeded No. 1, was matched with Jimmy Evert, Chicago, No. 3, while Dick Bender, Princeton, No. 2, drew Bill Vogt, Philadelphia, No. 4. The matches will start tonight (9 p. m., E. S. T.).

While the older division went according to Hoyle, an un-seeded and unheeded 15-year-old Woodmere, L. I., boy battled to a place in the finals of the boys' group.

Herb Tilles took the measure of Chadwick Johnson, Philadelphia, 5-7, 8-6, 6-4 for this third consecutive victory over a seeded player to gain a crack at the title.

He will meet the winner of the Jack Geller-Frank Willett match, Geller, Scarborough School, N. Y., seeded No. 1, was forced to three sets to defeat Morton Stern, Philadelphia, while Willett, Aniston, Ala., won his berth in the best match of the day, 8-10, 8-6, 7-5 over Jerry Everts, Chicago.

Seixas gained the round of four by defeating Stephen Bromley, Culver Military Academy, 6-1, 6-4. Vogt trounced Fred Kovaleski, Hamtramck, Mich., tournament darkhorse, 6-2, 6-2. Jimmy Evert trounced Richard Hart, Miami, Fla., 6-2, 6-4. Bender eliminated Stewart McCracken, Philadelphia, 6-2, 6-2.

Life is becoming simpler. In 1680, a not-too-elaborate Christmas dinner on a Maryland tide-water plantation might have included oysters on the half shell, turtle soup, ham, venison, turkey and ducks, potatoes, sweet potatoes, and other vegetables, jellies, conserves and pickles, pumpkin, mince meat, and apple pies, custards, syllabubs, and other desserts, coffee, and sweet meats with cider and "divers wines and spirits" for good cheer, says one authority.

FORDHAM RAMS "HELD UP" BY TEXANS

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, Dec. 28 (AP)—Seen and heard: Baron Von Cramm, the tennis star, is out of Hitler's doghouse and is on a good will tour through Spain. . . . Heinrich Henkeny, another crack German player, is dittoing in Japan. . . . When Lew Jenkins moves out in Miami, Fritzie Zivic will move in. . . . First arrival for the football coaches' meeting next week was "Moon" Mullins, the old Notre Dame, who had himself a whale of a season at St. Ambrose College out in Iowa. His team was unbeaten and unscored on and wasn't tied until the schedule's finale. . . . George Franck, Minnesota's all-America back, and his friend are having a hard time making people believe they didn't slip away recently and get themselves hitched.

Today's Guest Star
Maurice O'Shevin, St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "Francis Schmidt's Swan Song at Ohio State started with too much harmonizing."

Hither and Yon
Just leave it to those Whites to do the chucking—Ernie led the American Association pitchers and Hal was tops in the International. . . . Don Budge is tuning up for his tour with La Marle, et cet., by practicing with Frankie Kovacs on the coast. . . . Carl Snavely recently was invited to a big Pittsburgh sports function as the guest of Referee Red (Fifth Down) Friesell. . . . George Keogan, Notre Dame's cage coach, is ticketed for a general check up at that big mid-western clinic. . . . Charley O'Rourke's passing and kicking is amazing the folks down at Bay St. Louis, Miss., where Boston College is sharpening up for the Sugar Bowl tussle.

Bowl Selections
We think Nebraska's football host will upset Stanford on the coast; That mighty Tennessee will roll to victory in the Sugar Bowl. The Texas Aggies surely should take Fordham's Rams—and take 'em good. While in the Orange Bowl, fickle fate Will smile on Mississippi State. To Sun Bowl fans, this tip we voice: Just pay your dough and take your choice.

They're the Tops
Louisiana is very proud that the two biggest "days" in the majors last season were testimonials to two native sons—Mel Ott and Ted Lyons. Well, it couldn't have happened to two sweller guys, could it? . . . Madison Square Garden, which is having trouble lining up talent for its "honest wrestling" shows, is being advised to scout the colliery talent. J. G. Taylor Spink, publisher of "The Sporting News," is ringing the bell for mid-western fans with his weekly baseball chatter via air. . . . All the grooms and exercise boys at Hialeah who got in on Marshal Cassidy's Christmas egg-nog party, are petitioning him to pitch another just like it for New Year's.

Names Is Names
Charley Fleming, son of the veteran trotting horse driver, shortly will hang out his shingle as a public trainer of trotters and pacers at Syracuse. . . . Along comes Ray Nohlehek of Milwaukee with the suggestion it be called the Charley Horse Stable.

Community Project
A group of internes at St. John's Hospital here think so well of the prospects of Welterweight Tony Masseria, recently turned pro, that they have chipped in and bought a big slice of him.

Goodreault Will Play
New Orleans, Dec. 28 (AP)—Boston College's Sugar Bowl stock boomed today as word spread that Gene Goodreault, injured end, would be in shape to start in the classic game with Tennessee here New Year's Day. Boston College was in training at nearby Bay St. Louis, Miss., on the golf coast. Also on the coast was the Tennessee team, where Coach Bob Neyland was drumming to his men the importance of team play. "A so-called 'star' is not my ideal of a football player," Neyland said.

White Eagles Will Return To Action Friday Night

Local Quintet to Engage Beer Barrel Polkas of Poughkeepsie at the White Eagle Hall

The White Eagles will return to court action again next Friday night at the White Eagle Hall against the Beer Barrel Polka team from Poughkeepsie.

Due to the holiday season Manager Frank Wojciechowski postponed all previously booked encounters but now that the holidays are over, the White Eagles will be given plenty of work before the regular basketball season begins.

The White Eagles last victory was registered against Cairo 60 to 40 in a game which was not agreed upon for any definite date. However, the Green county team appeared at the local hall and as a result the game was played to the regret of Cairo.

So far this season the Eagles have won two and dropped three, just below the .500 clip. Despite the long lay-off Manager Wojciechowski believes his cagers will be in trim for next week's game against the Poughkeepsie quintet.

Four reasons why the Big Bear machine wrecked the Washington Red Skins for the championship three weeks ago—Quarterback Sid Luckman, Halfbacks Ray Nolting and Gary Famiglietti and Fullback Bill Osmanski—were named today to go in at the opening kickoff.

Ray Flaherty, coach of the All-Stars, and losing mentor of the Redskins, picked slinger Sammy Baugh, Pug Manders, Merlyn Condit and ramming Johnny Drake for his opening quartet of backfield aces.

Honor guests at the game will be the Stanford and Nebraska teams, rivals in the Rose Bowl game on New Year's Day.

Flaherty has fashioned an aerial attack built around Baugh, greatest passer in the business, and made no secret of the fact that he hoped for revenge for the 73-0 whipping his Washington club received from the Bears.

Fifteen California bred two-year-olds, headed by C. S. Howard's Yankee Dandy and the entry of Tin Pan Alley and Alessandros, were in the day's big race. A colorful turnout, generously dotted with film celebrities from Hollywood, was expected despite threats of rain.

Stanford May Open Game With Aerial Exhibition

Nebraska Leaves for West Coast to Resume Drills for Rose Bowl Battle; May Use 'T' Plays

Pasadena, Calif., Dec. 28 (AP)—Stanford's football squad headed into another lively workout today for the clash with Nebraska in the Rose Bowl, and once again Coach Clark Shaughnessy intimated he would stress his aerial offense.

Aerial drills have dominated the Stanford preparations since they reached Pasadena, with southpaw Frankie Albert, the Indians' all-America quarterback, and Thor Peterson doing the tossing.

Stanford boasts several splendid pass receivers, but Fred Meyer, right end; Clem Tomerlin, spindly-legged reserve wingman, and Hugh Gallarneau, halfback star, stand out in this department. Meyer is generally rated the best.

Milt Vucinich, second string fullback, continued to avoid drills because of his injured knee, and the belief is growing that he will not see action at all New Year's Day.

Huskies Depart

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 28 (AP)—Nebraska's football Cornhuskers, drilled so exhaustively on Stanford's famed "T" formation they could use it themselves, wind up an eight-day training stay for their Rose Bowl appearance in Arizona tonight.

An afternoon workout was on today's schedule before the Nebraska train enroute at 9:05 p. m. for Los Angeles.

All this week, Maj. Lawrence (Biff) Jones, Nebraska head coach, has worked his players on the tricky attack. Some members of the Nebraska party speculated as to whether Jones was planning to throw the "T" formation right back at Stanford.

Using opponents' plays against them is a favorite trick of Jones', observers recalled. He employed Minnesota plays, picked up by scouts, against the Gophers this year and later used Pittsburgh tactics against the Panthers.

Elastic Stockings

HERE at last are elastic stockings that are a mind wearing. They are so sheer they look like fine silk hose, and can be worn unnoted.
And the lighter latex yarns
give you cool comfort, yet they are full support, too. And they can be washed frequently without losing their shape. Ask your doctor about Bauer &
Black Elastic Stockings.

members of his cabinet to confer upon the rough draft.

He indicated he would have a lot to say, and some important pronouncements. His principal task, he said, was boiling into a half hour talk what he would like to say in about two hours. The address will be broadcast from 9:30 to 10 p. m. (EST) tomorrow.

Stephen Early, Mr. Roosevelt's press secretary, has predicted the speech would be very clear and specific on aid to Britain.

The cabinet was reported to have gone into an exhaustive review of the defense equipment production program and to have discussed appeals to the Chief Executive that he speak out boldly on the chances of an English defeat and what this would mean to the United States.

Such an appeal was addressed to the White House Thursday by 170 men and women who asked that "everything that may be necessary" be done to insure defeat of the Axis powers.

It was learned officially last night that the President would deliver his annual legislative message to Congress in person before a joint session on Monday, January 6.

The date was reported to have been agreed upon after telephone conferences with Democratic leaders in the House and Senate. The new Congress convenes on Friday, January 3, but some time will be required to organize.

Airplanes Grounded

Boston, Dec. 28 (AP)—Dense fog, blanketing the New England coast for the second successive day, grounded all Boston to New York airplanes today, hampered shipping, and spreading far inland, forced vehicular traffic to move cautiously. Mist and rain caused slippery highways inland. Warmer weather, with continued fog, was forecast for tonight and Sunday over the wide sections of the six states.

Supervisor Kaiser Shows Tax Saving In Wawarsing Town

Supervisor Charles F. Kaiser of the town of Wawarsing had the pleasure this week of announcing that taxes on the town as a whole would be much less this year than last.

The great saving is shown in the village of Ellenville where the rate this year will be $30.72 per thousand as against $37.12 in 1939, a saving of $6.40 per thousand valuation.

In the town outside the village, where the highway budget is about twice that of last year, the big increase being due to a demand for extensive oiling of town roads, there will be a small increase of 62 cents per thousand over last year. The outside village rate is $43.94 vs. $43.32 last year. The increase would have been much larger had not Supervisor Kaiser been able to secure an increase in the town's equalization ratio.

The town will expend $16,500 this coming year for oiling of town roads. Another large item is $16,000 for general repair work.

Order to 'Die'

Cairo, Egypt, Dec. 28 (AP)—Captured Italian soldiers reported today that Premier Mussolini himself had ordered Fascist forces in the beleaguered Libyan port of Bardia to "be ready to die rather than give up," and predicted the defenders would turn the siege into a "second Alcazar." They referred to the ten-week defense during the Spanish civil war of Spain's "West Point" at Toledo by Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces, which ultimately were rescued. But the Italians at Bardia apparently hold little hope of history repeating itself in another rescue.

Prices Firmer as 14 Issues Make New High for Year

Trading on the Stock Exchange was at a considerably accelerated pace Friday, with transactions reaching 1,272,710 shares, the first million-share day since November 15. Prices were firmer and 14 issues made new highs for the year. Gains were somewhat irregular, however, and improvement in the Dow-Jones averages was not sensational. The average of 30 industrial stocks, which closed at 129.51, a bit below the best level of the day, showed a gain of 49 points. The rails average was up 26, to 27.58, and the utilities moved forward 21 to close at 19.75. A total of 926 listed stocks was dealt in, broadest market since November 8.

There were a number of items of business news on the favorable side. Barron's index of the physical volume of business moved up to 95.4 per cent of normal for the week ended December 21, against 93.9 the preceding week and a new recovery high. A year ago it was 91.8. For the same week, the last full week before Christmas, Federal Reserve Board estimates showed that department store sales were seven per cent larger than in the same week last year, with the Richmond Reserve district showing a gain of 18 per cent. A Dun & Bradstreet survey appraised general business at the best levels in ten years.

Commodity markets maintained a fairly firm tone, with the Dow-Jones index showing a gain of 0.13 point. Cotton prices were lifted by foreign demand and futures closed six to ten points higher. Wheat showed little variation, closing unchanged to off, but there was strength in corn futures and the close was 1/2 to 3/4 cent a bushel higher. There were reports of British inquiries for corn starch to be used in the manufacture of munitions. In Canada the Wartime Prices and Trade Board announced that wholesale butter prices had been pegged at the level of December 12, which in Montreal on that date was 34 1/2 to 35 cents a pound.

Freight car loadings for week ended December 21 were 700,242 cars, a less than seasonal decrease of 36,090 from the previous week and the largest for the period since the like week in 1930, when the total was 713,865.
